

Name: _____

Directions:

Choose one of the nominees in the 1912 election:

- Taft, Republican
- Wilson, Democrat
- Roosevelt, Progressive or Bull Moose
- Debs, Socialist

In the box, answer the following questions about your nominee:

- If this candidate were running for office today, which of his platform policies would still be applicable?
- What makes this nominee still relevant today?
- How would he appeal to the American public? Would he be electable today?
- Are his platform policies still embraced by his party today?

Create a campaign button for your chosen nominee in the circular space provided below, as if he were running for office today. You can either use the circle and hand-draw your design, or create one on your computer and adhere it to this page.

Your button should have the following characteristics:

- Campaign slogan with clear connection to 1912 platform policy.
- Candidate's name and party
- Is aesthetically appealing – images or color.
- Should show evidence of time and thought spent.
